

An excellent Homeopathy Event in Novosibirsk, Russia, 11th – 13th of November 2018

A Seminar in Classical Homeopathy was held at Novosibirsk Homeopathic Centre, Novosibirsk, Russia from November 11th to 13th, 2018.

Dr Dmitry Chabanov, the Director of the Centre and a very experienced Classical Homeopath, Diploma Holder and Lecturer of IACH, organized this seminar in order to spread the invaluable teachings of his Teacher, Prof George Vithoulkas.

Dr. Atul Jaggi the speaker of the seminar, began by explaining in detail the theory lectures elicited by Prof. Vithoulkas and then followed it by presentation of his Difficult Chronic Cases with their in-depth analysis. The presentations included one by one, all the challenges faced during the treatment whether it were acutes appearing or the skin eruptions or discharges etc. The Acute Cases presented were also very educative and depicted the differential diagnosis of remedies.

Dr. Latika Jaggi supported Dr. Atul Jaggi in the presentations, with the repertorisations and Prof. Vithoulkas teachings.

She also presented a very insightful lecture of Prof. George Vithoulkas on Differential Diagnosis of Egotism.

The seminar also included taking live cases in presence of the doctors to elucidate the process of case taking and analysis as taught by Prof. Vithoulkas

The best part of the seminar which every doctor eagerly waited for, was the Skype session with Prof. George Vithoulkas, where he answered many intriguing questions thereby clearing many doubts and queries. A big thanks to him for sharing his wisdom and immense knowledge.

All the attending doctors participated with great enthusiasm and in the end thanked Atul and Latika Jaggi who dared to come to snowy and cold Siberia to share their knowledge and Dr Dmitry Chabanov for organizing such an efficient seminar which imparted a memorable learning experience.
